About the conference

The organizing committee on the behalf of Department of Economics invites you to participate in the National Seminar titled “Demonetization: Its economic and political implications in India.” This seminar intends to dispel and counter the misconceptions about demonetization. It also intends to highlight the short-term v/s long-term merits and demerits of demonetization through dialogue and discussion in-order to create awareness about it amongst the students, teachers, professionals etc.

Sub themes of the seminar:

- 1. Rationle and Dimensions of Demonetization in India.
- 2. Economic Implications of Demonetization;
(i) Broader macroeconomic implications.
(ii) Its implications on agriculture, manufacturing and banking sectors.
(iii) Its implications on informal and unorganized economy.
(iv) Its implications on tax-evasion and terrorism.
- 3. Indian v/s International experiences on demonetization.
- 4. Politics of demonetization.

The conference would be inter-disciplinary in order to provide a platform to express heterogeneous views from all branches of social sciences. The papers for this seminar drawing opinions of experts from all fields of social science could be sent either in Hindi or in English Medium.
Participants: Undergraduate, Postgraduate, Researcher and Faculty from various organization are invited to participate in the seminar.
