In a varied and diverse society as ours, education stimulates social, political and economic growth. Higher education provides fillip in ensuring overall development of the community and region, bridging the divide between literate-illiterate, rich-poor, rural-urban and forging socio-political and economic changes in the society. Swami Shraddhanand College, a popular institution of the University of Delhi, has been up to the task since its inception in the late 60's in the rural suburbs of North Delhi. As one of the first colleges to be established in rural area it caters to the educational needs of its surrounding villages. There has been a gradual change in the demographic profile of the college. While performing its role as a pivot of higher education for the area, it has been able to attract students from across the country. It has been equipping them with knowledge and imbibing in them a sense of being awakened and responsible citizens of the country.

The institution cultivates and makes its students realize their full potential through integrated and multi-disciplinary education with the aid of its highly qualified teachers and specialized non-teaching staff. The college boasts of well-equipped laboratories and spacious library having a varied and vast collection of books. The college library is integrated with Delhi University Library System, which keeps the students abreast with latest research in different fields while keeping them in consonance with new and emerging technologies. Our institution is also a cradle for budding sports persons who are encouraged by its sports infrastructure- extensive sports ground and professionally trained staff. Generous funds and grants are allocated for various sporting activities and events. Keeping on with its role as an academic and social institution, the college provides scholarships and free-ships to its deserving students. Meritorious students are provided accolades through various awards and prizes annually. With the avowed purpose of cultivating and improving academic environment in the college, students' societies and associations are promoted and nurtured. The societies and associations organize and sponsor lectures, talks, seminars, exhibitions, tours etc integrating practical component with the theoretical treatise in classroom.

The college is on a progressive movement towards excellence and aspires to be one of the foremost centers of higher education in the University of Delhi. We all are committed to and are striving to realize the full potential of the institution through our collective endeavour and effort.
