

NCC UNIT- 2 DELHI GIRLS BATTALION

The National Cadet Corps (NCC) Girls Unit of Swami Shraddhanand College, University of Delhi, functioning under 2 Delhi Girls Battalion, Delhi Directorate, demonstrated discipline and leadership during the academic year 2025–26. The activities and achievements are as follows:

1. Under the guidance of Care Taker Officer Dr. Ritu, the unit conducted structured training programmes, camps, and community engagement activities to promote leadership, patriotism, and holistic personality development. The rank panel included SUO Ekta Tiwari; JUOs Bhoomi Sachdeva, Ranjana, and Rishika Kumari; CQSM Shivani Rathore; CSM Mahima Maurya; along with Sergeants, Corporals, and Lance Corporals who ensured smooth functioning of the unit.

2. Cadets participated in Annual Training Camps (ATC) and Combined Annual Training Camps (CATC). One cadet attended the Sports Climbing Camp, and two cadets participated in the All India Girls Trekking Expedition in Himachal Pradesh. CPL Subho represented the unit in the Chief Minister's Rally. Four cadets participated in the Thal Sainik Camp, taking part in judging distance, field signals, obstacle training, and firing.

3. SUO Ekta Tiwari participated in Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat Phase I in Odisha, while other cadets attended Phase II. Cadets also represented the unit at SNIC Meghalaya, Military Hospital Attachment Camp, and IDC, where twelve cadets participated, gaining exposure to national integration and defence services.

4. The unit actively organized and participated in social and environmental initiatives including World Environment Day tree plantation, International Yoga Day, and Independence Day celebrations, where LCPL Payal Kumari and LCPL Tamanna served in the piloting team for the Chief Guest. Regular Swachh Bharat Abhiyan drives were conducted within and outside the campus.

5. Cadets participated in Tiranga rallies, Youth Day rallies, blood donation awareness campaigns (with SUO Ekta Tiwari donating blood), horse show, cycling marathon, book launch at Kamla Devi Complex, slogan writing competitions on environmental awareness, and swachhata oath ceremonies, strengthening leadership and community engagement.

6. Overall, the NCC Girls Unit actively participated in camps, parades, outreach programmes, and national initiatives, upholding the values of unity, discipline, and patriotism, and continuing its commitment to the NCC motto “Unity and Discipline.”
